There are no legal or disciplinary event(s) to disclose or, provide details

Item 4 - Other Business Activities

This section includes any relationship between the advisory business and the supervised person's other financial industry activities that creates a material conflict of interest with clients and describes the nature of the conflict and generally how it is addressed. If the supervised person is actively engaged in any investment-related business or occupation, including if the supervised person is registered, or has an application pending to register, as a broker-dealer, registered representative of a broker-dealer, futures commission merchant ("FCM"), commodity pool operator ("CPO"), commodity trading advisor ("CTA"), or an associated person of an FCM, CPO, or CTA, the business relationship, if any, between the advisory business and the other business is disclosed below.

Non-Insurance Licensed Registered Representative

Sarah Horrigan is also a broker or registered representative of LPL Financial and receives commissions and other types of compensation for the sale of securities. The potential for the receipt of commissions may give a broker an incentive to recommend investment products based on the compensation received, rather than on the client's needs. However, Sarah Horrigan may only recommend securities that he believes are in your best interests. If you have any questions regarding the compensation he receives when recommending a security, you should him. You are under no obligation to purchase investments through Sarah Horrigan.

Dually Registered with LPL Financial, an SEC registered Investment Adviser

Sarah Horrigan is dually registered with LPL Financial, an unaffiliated SEC registered investment adviser. Investment advice is provided through LPL Financial for a fee separate and apart from the investment advisory services your advisor offers through Planned Financial. Prior to receiving investment advice through this separate entity, clients are required to enter into a separate agreement with LPL Financial.

Item 5 - Additional Compensation

This section includes details regarding if someone who is not a client provides an economic benefit to the supervised person for providing advisory services. For purposes of this Item, economic benefits include sales awards and other prizes, but not the supervised person's regular salary, if any.

Sarah Horrigan may receive economic benefits from persons other than clients in connection with advisory services. Sarah Horrigan provides services in an Asset Management account and may recommend mutual funds. Only no-load and load-waived mutual funds are available to be purchased in such asset management accounts. However, some of these mutual funds may pay distribution or service fees (e.g., 12b-1 fees) payable to LPL Financial. However, when your investment advisor representative provides investment advisory services, it is as a fiduciary under the Investment Advisers Act and has a duty to act in your best interest and to make full and fair disclosure to you of all material facts and conflicts of interest. Sarah Horrigan may receive compensation from product sponsors. Compensation may include such items as gifts valued at less than $100 annually, an occasional dinner or ticket to a sporting event, or reimbursement in connection with educational or training events or marketing or advertising initiatives. Such compensation may not be tied to the sale of any products. LPL Financial shares a portion of the account fee you pay with your advisor, which may be more than what would have been received at another investment advisor firm. This compensation may also include other types of compensation, such as bonuses, awards or other things of value offered by LPL Financial. LPL Financial may pay your advisor in different ways, such as payments based on production, awards of stock options to purchase shares of LPL Financial's parent company, LPL Financial Holdings Inc., reimbursement of fees that he may pay to LPL Financial for items such as administrative services, and other things of value such as free or reduced-cost marketing materials, payments in connection with the transition of association from another broker/dealer or investment advisor firm to LPL

Financial, advances of advisory fees, or attendance at LPL Financial's national conference or top producer forums and events. LPL Financial may pay your advisor this compensation based on his overall business production and/or on the amount of assets serviced in LPL Financial advisory programs. Therefore, the amount of this compensation may be more than what would be received if a client participated in other LPL Financial programs, programs of other investment advisor firms or paid separately for investment advice, brokerage and other client services. Therefore, your advisor may have a financial incentive to recommend an advisory program over other programs and services. However, your advisor may only recommend a program or service that is believed to be appropriate for you.

Sarah Horrigan may have received a loan and/or transition payments from LPL Financial in order to assist with transitioning business to LPL Financial's custodial and brokerage platforms. This presents a potential conflict of interest in that your investment advisor representative has a financial incentive to recommend that you maintain an account with LPL Financial. However, to the extent your advisor recommends you engage LPL Financial, it is because your advisor believes that the advisory program or service is appropriate for you.

Item 6 - Supervision

This section explains how Planned Financial supervises the supervised person, including how the advice the supervised person provided to clients is monitored.

Planned Financial maintains a supervisory structure and system reasonably designed to prevent violations of the Investment Advisers Act of 1940. Sarah Horrigan's securities-related activities are supervised by an individual registered as a principal in accordance with FINRA regulations. In addition, compliance staff uses tools that monitor the advisory services provided by Sarah Horrigan, for example, with respect to asset allocation, concentration, and account activity. The Chief Compliance Officer, is responsible for administering the Planned Financial policies and procedures for investment advisory activities and for regularly evaluating their effectiveness. The Chief Compliance Officer, Frank Fantozzi, can be reached at (440) 740-0130.
